

IES Breckland: ICT User Agreement

The aim of our ICT user agreement is to ensure that Students will benefit from learning opportunities offered by the school's Internet resources in a safe and effective manner. Internet use and access is considered a school resource and privilege. Therefore, if the school agreement is not adhered to this privilege will be withdrawn and appropriate sanctions – as outlined below – will be imposed.

Please read carefully to ensure that the conditions of use are accepted and understood.

School's Strategy

The school employs a number of strategies in order to maximise learning opportunities and reduce risks associated with the Internet. These strategies are as follows:

General

- Internet sessions in lessons will be supervised by a teacher.
- Filtering software and/or equivalent systems will be used in order to minimise the risk of exposure to inappropriate material.
- All activity on school computers will be monitored.
- The school will regularly monitor Students' Internet usage.
- Students and teachers will be provided with training in the area of E-Safety.
- Uploading and downloading of non-approved software will not be permitted.
- Virus protection software will be used and updated on a regular basis.
- The use of personal memory sticks, CD-ROMs, or other digital storage media in school requires a teacher's permission.
- Students will treat others with respect at all times and will not undertake any actions that may bring the school into disrepute.

World Wide Web

- Students will not intentionally visit Internet sites that contain obscene, racist, illegal, hateful or otherwise objectionable materials.
- Students will report accidental accessing of inappropriate materials in accordance with school procedures.
- Students will use the Internet for educational purposes only.
- Students will not copy information into assignments and fail to acknowledge the source (plagiarism and copyright infringement).
- Students will never disclose or publicise personal information.
- Downloading materials or images not relevant to their studies, is in direct breach of the school's acceptable use policy.
- Students will be aware that any usage, including distributing or receiving information, school-related or personal, may be monitored for unusual activity, security and/or network management reasons.

Email

- Students may only use approved email accounts.
- Students will not send or receive any material that is illegal, racist, obscene, defamatory or that is intended to annoy or intimidate another person.

- Students will not reveal their own or other people's personal details, such as addresses or telephone numbers or pictures.
- Students will never arrange a face-to-face meeting with someone they only know through emails or the Internet.
- Students will note that sending and receiving email attachments is subject to permission from their teacher.

Social Networking

- Students will not be permitted to use any form of Social Networking within the school premises or on any school hardware.

School Website

- Students will be given the opportunity to publish projects, artwork or school work on the World Wide Web in accordance with clear policies and approval processes regarding the content that can be loaded to the school's website
- The website will be regularly checked to ensure that there is no content that compromises the safety of Students or Staff.
- The publication of Student work will be co-ordinated by a teacher.
- Students' work will appear in an educational context on Web pages with a copyright notice prohibiting the copying of such work without express written permission.
- The school will endeavour to use digital photographs, audio or video clips focusing on group activities. Content focusing on individual Students will not be published on the school website without parental permission. Video clips may be password protected.
- Personal Student information including home address and contact details will be omitted from school web pages.
- The school will not publish the first name and last name of individuals in a photograph.
- The school will ensure that the image files are appropriately named – will not use Students' names in image file names or ALT tags if published on the web.
- Students will continue to own the copyright on any work published.

Sanctions

Misuse of the Internet may result in disciplinary action, including written warnings, withdrawal of access privileges and, in extreme cases, fixed term or permanent exclusion. The school also reserves the right to report any illegal activities to the appropriate authorities.
